Doctor John

Absolut Vanilia Vodka, Orgeat, Lemon & Butterfly Pea

Our journey begins at our sister restaurant The Adamson. It is named after Dr John Adamson, a renowned physician and photographic pioneer. The blue plaque at the front of the building bears his name.

£11

ABSOLUT.

Wild Swim

Bumbu Rum, Honeydew & Soda

For those wanting a different kind of St Andrews experience, visit Castle Sands tidal pool, which sits between the famous West Sands and East Sands beaches. Surrounded by rocky formations, it offers a uniquely atmospheric swim.

£12

The Chariots of Fire

*Deacon Scotch Whisky,
Earl Grey Syrup, Apple & Rosemary*

St Andrews is famously tied to the 1981 Oscar-winning film Chariots of Fire. Its iconic opening scene—where Olympic athletes run in slow motion on the sand—was filmed on West Sands Beach.

£13

Hamish's Strut

Havana Spiced Rum, Mango, Peach, & Fevertree Ginger Ale

Just off South Street in Logies Lane you'll find a statue of a ginger cat, Hamish McHamish. Featured in the book Hamish McHamish: Cool Cat About Town, Hamish charmed residents and visitors as he strutted about the town.

£11

Gunpowder

Ki No Bi Sei Navy Strength Gin, Suze, Rhubarb & Ginger Shrub

Next we head to St Andrews Castle, where gunpowder played a pivotal role – featuring prominently in its defences, a bloody siege, and a famous underground battle.

£11

The Swilcan Bridge

*Aberlour 12 Year Old,
Pine Bitters & Honey*

No journey through St Andrews would be complete without a visit to the iconic Swilcan Bridge, located at the 18th Hole of the Old Course, perhaps the most famous golf course in the world.

£14

The Haunted Lady

*Absolut Vodka, Pear, Amaretto
& Coconut Milk*

At the historic cathedral, you may encounter St Andrews' most famous ghost. A spectral figure dressed in white, she is said to haunt the parapets and graveyard of the cathedral, before disappearing into the Haunted Tower.

£11

ABSOLUT.

Red Gown

Beefeater Pink Gin, Lemon, Nero d'Avola & Vanilla

The University of St Andrews is where Prince William and Catherine Middleton first met while living at St Salvator's Hall. Like them, undergraduates at the University famously wear red gowns for formal events.

£11

Blackfriar's Ruin

Beefeater gin, Cointreau, Lillet Blanc, Lemon & Absinthe

Our final stop is Blackfriars Chapel, the picturesque remains of a Dominican friary. Handily, the Chapel is close to The Physician on South Street where you can sample any of our featured cocktails.
