

Our Resilient Heritage: Adapting Scottish Tourism to Climate Change

Scotland's Climate is Changing. What does this mean for Heritage Tourism?

Join our free two-part workshop programme to find out how your business can adapt and build a resilient future.

The programme at glance

- 1 in-person workshop
- 1 follow-up online session
- A mix of presentations, coaching and peer-to-peer learning
- Resources on how to develop a climate risk assessment and adaptation planning
- Guidance on funding opportunities
- Certificate of attendance
- Facilitators who are adaptation experts working in heritage and climate.

Key dates

Come along on October 26th 9.30am to 3.30pm to the Engine Shed, Stirling, for a practical workshop designed to help heritage tourism businesses building climate resilience.

Join the online follow-up session on November 18th 10-11:30 am to share progress on your own climate risk assessment and adaptation plan, discuss challenges and explore practical solutions.

Sign up using the QR code today to guarantee your space!

